Dear [Redacted]

STAT

I have at hand a letter dated February 27, 1947, signed by [Redacted] requesting a copy of the Russian broadcast that is heard at 1 P.M. daily.

From this letter, it is believed, that you may be interested in the broadcast beamed to Russia from the State Department's Voice of America Station in New York. This office does not have copies of this broadcast, and it is suggested that you write to:

Office of International Information and Cultural Affairs
Department of State
234 West 57th Street
New York, New York

Very truly yours,
